REFLECT

Do you ever wonder what heaven is like? We all do. What happens after we die? What will eternity look like? As we continue in our study in the amazing Book of Revelation, the scene shifts from the seven local churches that Jesus wants to minister to heaven. And what we will see is breathtaking.

REALIZE

1. Heaven is opened

- Scripture Reference: Daniel 7:9, Isaiah 6:1
- Leader Notes
 - We need heaven to be opened up for us.
 - John was walking in the Spirit, we need to be filled with the Spirit through belief in Jesus.
 - Sanctification is the Spirit working in us to grow us in maturity.
 - Growth depends on who sits in the throne of your life.
- Questions for Reflection:
 - What do I believe about heaven?
 - Who sits on the throne of my life?

2. God is light

- Scripture Reference: 1 John 1:5
- Leader Notes
 - John is captivated by the light of Jesus.
 - God is light, and we are designed to uniquely reflect that light into the world.
 - Worldliness hinders our ability to reflect the light of God.
- Questions for Reflection:
 - How can I better walk with God in light?

3. Dwell in the Presence of God

- Scripture Reference: Psalm 91:1-2, 9-10
- Leader Notes
 - The elders are dwelling in the presence of God.
 - The gift to us is that we get to dwell in God's presence now.
 - God is present with us, but we often get distracted.

- Questions for reflection:

- What does God's Presence mean to me?
- What are things that distract me from the presence of God?
