REFLECT

God is such a gracious God. The gospel, the good news, is that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. God, knowing that we were forever lost, sent Jesus on a rescue mission. He died the death that we deserved to give us the life we could never have without Him. And we praise Jesus for it. But when we reject the grace of God, there are consequences. Severe consequences. And we will see that as we explore the fifth and sixth seals of Revelation 6.

REALIZE

1. The martyrs cry out for justice

- Scripture Reference: Hebrews 11:37-40
- Leader Notes
 - We live in a world where suffering happens, and Jesus identifies with our sufferings.
 - We can learn to praise God despite how hard our circumstances can be.
- Questions for Reflection: What do I think about people who give up their lives for their faith in Jesus?

2. Tremendous cataclysmic disturbances

- Scripture Reference: Joel 2:28-32, Matthew 24:7
- Leader Notes
 - We live in an age of grace, and at the end of the age the world will be filled with cataclysmic events.
 - Creation was subjected to futility because of the fall, and these events are a part of the birth pangs for the coming kingdom.
- Questions for Reflection: What would these cataclysmic experiences be like?

3. Respond the right way

- Scripture Reference: Matthew 4:17, Luke 23:29-30
- Leader Notes
 - We all try to hide from God.
 - Through His Spirit, God wants to teach us how to respond the right way.
- Questions for reflection: Where do I need to simply respond to Jesus?
